THE QUESTION OF FREE COINAGE

What Southern Editors Say About Silver.

The Majority of the People in the Cities Opposed to the Unlimited Coinage of Silver—The Opposite Opinion Prevails in the Mineral Districts—Most of the Editors Express Views in Opposition to Free Coinage.

BALTIMORE, June 18.—To-day's News contains letters from many prominent Southern editors, giving their opinion on the silver question and the drift of sentiment in their respective sections: J. P. Caldwell, the Charlotte Observer: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver by this country independently of international agreement. The sentiment of this section is in favor of free coinage. This is the unanimous sentiment of the agricultural districts, while the majority of the sentiment of the towns perhaps favor sound money."

R. M. Johnson, the Houston Daily Post: "The last national Democratic platform about expresses my idea of the silver question. I am in favor of the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either, but with legislative safeguards to the extent of preserving the parity of the two."

H. J. Hearsey, the Daily States, New Orleans: "I agree with the President and Secretary of the Treasury and am for sound money. In my opinion the right thing would be the plank in the Chicago platform of 1892, with the addition of a more specific and ringing declaration in favor of the repeal of the ten per cent. tax on State bank issues under proper safeguards. Such a declaration would do more to check the silver craze in the South than all things else. A large majority of the business men of New Orleans and the larger interior cities are for 'sound money.' In the rural districts of the State the free and unlimited silver craze largely preponderates."

Baltimore News and Observer: "I am in favor of the unlimited coinage of silver, independent of international agreement. The money plank in the next Democratic platform should declare for bimetalism embracing free coinage at 16 to 1. The sentiment of my section on this question is for silver and has been increasing."

G. A. Baskette, the Nashville Banner: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver independent of international agreement. There should be no straddling of the issue. The Democracy should adhere to the gold standard. Public sentiment in this section is divided."

A. B. Pickett, the Evening Sentinel, Memphis: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver by this country independently, and regard bimetalism as an iridescent dream. The government should retire from the banking business. I am inclined to believe that the free silver cry will not be anything like as vociferous when the next Democratic National convention meets as at present."

F. E. McEwan, of the Chattanooga Times: "The Chattanooga Times opposes the unlimited coinage of silver by this country independent of international agreement. The Southern sentiment for free silver is strong; it is not as strong as it was a few months ago."

M. H. Clayton, ROANOKE TIMES: "I favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 by the United States without consulting Europe. Mr. Cleveland has built up a school of more than a million of voters who accept without scrutiny and vote without reason the doctrines of the gold bugs. Doctrines which if followed will bankrupt 80 per cent. of the people of this country. I think unlimited coinage of silver is gaining friends in Southwest Virginia. The 'Campaign of Education' is doing the work."

W. S. Copeland, the State Newspaper Company, Richmond, Va.: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver by this country, independently of international agreement. The sentiment of the business men of this city is largely in opposition to free coinage. With a revival of business I believe that free silver sentiment in this community would disappear."

F. S. Woodson, the Danville Register: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver by this country, independently. I claim to be a true bimetalist, that is to say I hold to the money of the constitution, gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin. International agreement as to ratio will make the silver dollar as good as the best, and without such agreement, it cannot be so made."

Edwin Craighead, Mobile Register: "I am opposed to the free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 and doubt whether even international agreement would make sure the parity between gold and silver coin. Let the government go out of the banking business."

F. V. Evans, the Age-Herald, Birmingham: "The unlimited coinage of silver by this country independently of international agreement would prove a public calamity by driving gold from the United States, doubling the burden of the debtor class, robbing the creditor of just dues and closing the ocean gateways of international commerce."

Richard Knott, the Louisville Post: "I am unalterably opposed to the free coinage of silver at any ratio, with or without international agreement. In my judgment the decline of silver has not been due to any great extent, to the fact that it has been denied free coinage in various mints of the world."

J. H. Estill, the Savannah Morning News: "I am opposed to the unlimited coinage of silver by this country, independently of international agreement. The majority sentiment in this part of Georgia and in Florida is for sound money. This city is strongly against the free and unlimited coinage of silver by this country alone. In the country districts there is a very considerable sentiment in favor of an increase in the volume of currency."

DEGREE OF LL. D. CONFERRED.

But President Cleveland Declines the Honor.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Wilberforce University, the oldest institution in the country for the education of negroes, a few days ago conferred the degree of LL. D. upon President Cleveland. The President has sent an autograph letter to President Mitchell, of Wilberforce declining the honor: Wilberforce University is conducted under the auspices of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and was founded by Bishop D. A. Payne. The President has recently shown the institution favors and it was in return for these favors and in recognition of his worth that the university desired to confer upon him the honorary degree.

President Cleveland recently made a young colored man lieutenant in the army and detailed him as special instructor in military tactics at the university. Then, too, when a postmaster was to be appointed at Wilberforce, Ohio, where the institution is located the President selected a colored man endorsed by the faculty of Wilberforce. The President in his letter is said to have expressed his high appreciation of the institution but not being a college graduate, and having declined a similar honor from one of America's great universities, he regarded it as but consistent to adhere to that course.

ALL ABOUT A CHICKEN.

One Kentuckian Kills Another in a Quarrel About a Fowl.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 18.—A special to the Evening Post from Bowling Green, Ky., says: W. H. Cardwell shot and instantly killed Ditto Jones this morning at Aberdeen, one mile from Morgantown. The trouble came up over a chicken that was recently killed by one of them, and on meeting this morning they began quarrelling, and after a few words had been exchanged Cardwell drew his pistol and fired two shots into Jones' body.

Jones lived on a shanty boat with his family at Rockport, and Cardwell resides at Aberdeen. After the shooting Cardwell disappeared, and it is thought he has gone to Indiana. It is reported here that an organized posse of armed men is scouring the surrounding country for the murderer, and if captured he will be lynched at once.

A Novel Secret Society.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 18.—Judge Norton to-day granted a charter to a stock company to be called the Supreme Temple of the Silver Knights of America. The general objects are stated to be to establish a secret society for the purpose of seeking to secure in a legal way the free coinage of silver in the United States, and to make silver a legal tender for all debts, and to collect and expend money for that purpose. The capital stock is $100,000, and the shares $100 each. M. B. Harlow is the legal agent; W. M. Stewart, of Carson City, Nev., is president; James L. Palt, vice-president; Oliver C. Sabine, secretary; James A. B. Richard, treasurer, and S. S. Yoder, director-general.

Grand Jury Refused to Indict.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 18.—In a court of general sessions to-day the grand jury refused to find true bills in any of six indictments handed out for violations of the dispensary law. About 100 cases were rendered for consideration, all of which will be treated in a like manner. It is said that the attorney general will resort to change of venue and move to have the cases tried in some other county.

Advise a Discontinuance of the War.

MADRID, June 18.—A dispatch to the Imparcial from Havana says that the autonomists and special leaders of the last revolution have had a conference at Puerto Principe. After they had discussed the situation, it is added, they decided that the separatists were not in a position to continue the struggle, and a committee was appointed to go to Santiago de Cuba and advise Maximo Gomez to abandon the war.

City Treasurer of Omaha Missing.

OMAHA, Neb., June 18.—City Treasurer Henry Bollin, whose accounts are under investigation by his bondsmen, has suddenly and mysteriously disappeared. He was under a bond for a million dollars. Since he disappeared notes addressed to his family have been found among his papers which clearly indicate suicide. It is not believed he will be found alive. His life was insured for $30,000.

Society of the Army of the Potomac.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 18.—The city is adorned with flags and bunting in honor of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, which is holding its annual reunion here. The reunion of the society took place in the armory at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The parade, in which 1,500 people participated, began at 3 o'clock.

Postmaster Arrested for Embezzlement. WASHINGTON, June 18.—C. M. Mills, late postmaster at Tyron, N. C., was arrested in that State to-day for embezzlement of money-order funds. Postoffice inspectors in a dispatch to the Postoffice Department report that they recovered $500 of the $1,000 taken.

Woolen Mills Employes Strike.

AMESBURY, Mass., June 18.—About six hundred employes of the Hamilton woolen mills refused to go to work to-day because the company denied them an increase in wages. The strikers claim that 400 more operatives will join them.

No Meeting Yesterday.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Owing to the absence of a quorum there was no meeting of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association. There will be a meeting to-morrow morning.

MORE YELLOW BALL PLAYING.

Roanoke Again Disgusts the Faithful Rooters.

Stahl Batted Hard and the Men Behind Him Make Glaring Errors—Norfolk Also Put Up a Poor Game, But Had No Difficulty in Winning—The Home Team Nearing Last Place.

The exhibition of ball playing given by Roanoke yesterday would have disgraced a team of amateurs. Notwithstanding the poor games they have been playing lately, a fair sized crowd gathered to see them try and win a game from Norfolk, but they were woefully disappointed. To an uninterested spectator it looked as though they did not want to win; indeed, it has looked this way for the past week. The men have gone into the contests in a half-hearted manner and it was easy to see that they were beaten before the game began.

Such playing as Roanoke has been guilty of lately should not be allowed by the management. The men are all capable of playing better ball, and should be made to do it. It is not fair to the public to ask them to patronize such farces. If they want to see anything funny they can go to a theatre or a circus. The average baseball crank pays his money to see good, conscientious ball, and he has a right to kick if he does not get what he has paid for. Were this poor playing of Roanoke an exception it might be overlooked, but to have it dished up as regular ball of fare is too much for the average baseball rooter to stand. A few fines judiciously administered and collected would undoubtedly put new life into the aggregation that is representing Roanoke on the diamond this year.

Yesterday's game was a repetition of that of the day before, only a little more tiresome if possible. The error column does not begin to show the bad ball the home team was guilty of, as their errors of omission were as great, if not greater, than those of commission. Several times they went up in the air and acted as though the ball were a hot potato and they were afraid of burning their hands if they touched it.

The absence of Padden, who is suffering with a very sore hand, from the game necessitated a change among the locals. Farrell covered short, Cavanaugh went to second and Brown, who is from Padden's home in West Virginia, went into left field, Sherer going to center. Brown made a good showing and is undoubtedly a good man. He led his side at the bat, having three singles, although two of them were very scratchy. Farrell put up a good game at short accepting everything that came his way, and Viox also did good work at third although he shirked one ball that he could probably have gotten. Stahl attempted to do the twirling for Roanoke and made almost as big a failure of it as a man could well do and still stay in the box. He also led in the error getting having two misplays to his credit.

Norfolk's playing was not much of an improvement over Roanoke's, but they saved themselves by hitting the ball hard and often. Roanoke could do very little with Weeks, and generally made their hits when they did not count. The home team also again demonstrated the fact that they need a few lessons in base running. A glance at the score will show the reader how it happened:

"Lucky" McCann will do the twirling for Roanoke to-day. This will be the last game on the home grounds until July 8, and it will be called at 4:45 this afternoon in order to allow the Norfolk and Western clerks to witness it. McCann has accepted the terms offered him by the club and signed a Roanoke contract yesterday.

Portsmouth, 9; Richmond, 3.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., June 18.—Richmond again suffered defeat at the hands of Brady's pets to-day owing to their inability to hit Leach at the proper time. Groves, Foster and Kain being the only Blue Birds that could connect at all with his delivery. Flynn, on the other hand, allowed the home team to bunch their hits. He was also a trifle wild. A crowd of excursionists arrived here from Richmond to witness the game, but were a sad looking lot when it was over.

Lynchburg, 11; Petersburg, 2.

LYNCHBURG, Va., June 18.—An interesting contest was witnessed to-day on Rivermont grounds between the Petersburg and Lynchburg teams. Lynchburg won by a score of 11 to 2, all because the home team hit Alloway opportunely, while only five scattering hits were secured off Orth. Many beautiful plays were made on both sides. Leahy's hit to deep center field in the sixth inning, bringing in three runs, and Berryhill's and Sanford's home run hits were enthusiastically applauded.

THE STRIKE IS OVER.

All the Operators Decide to Open Their Mines.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., June 18.—The Bluefield Telegraph, of yesterday, announced that the end of the big strike had come. The operators have said the work and business will be resumed at all the mines in the Flat-Top field without further delay. A resolution was passed at Saturday's meeting declaring as the sense of the association that operations should begin at once. The Bramwell meeting of Friday was only preliminary to Saturday's gathering, but it was apparent even then that the fight was over and that nothing remained but the formalities of ordering a resumption.

The miners at the Simmons mines and practically everywhere else had come to such desperate straits that they had either to go back to work or throw themselves upon the charity of the public. The promised supplies from the miners' union had failed them and they were powerless to help themselves. A good many of them have been taken care of by the operators.

The operators have had to withstand a heavy pressure, both from the miners and the stockholders of their companies, and since the successful resumption of the six companies, there could be no result other than a general resumption unless the owners of the mines were willing to let their properties lie idle indefinitely. The sentiment at Saturday's meeting was by no means unanimous, but there was a clear majority and the decision was made. The operators are all able to start with a respectable force, though in some cases no preparations have been made.

The resumption will be general to-day, but in the nature of things there can be very little coal loaded before the middle of the week. It will take the entire week to bring the operations to anything like their normal condition.

Lawless, the district president, has departed from this section and Mr. Webb is now at the head of the labor organizations here. He has not yet declared the strike off, but will most likely do so in a very short time.

Amly Exonerated from the Charge.

LONDON, June 18.—To-day, in the city temple of the British Woman's Temperance Union, Miss Florence Baggart accused Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of America of being apologists for the lynchings in the Southern parts of the United States. Miss Willard made a spirited defense of herself and of the union, and a resolution was carried unanimously declaring that the American Woman's Christian Temperance Union maintained towards the lynching question the same attitude as other Christian bodies, namely, that under no circumstances must human life be taken without process of law.

Lord Colin Campbell Dead.

BOMBAY, June 18.—Lord Colin Campbell, fourth son of the Duke of Argyll, a captain in the Bombay Rifle volunteer corps, is dead at the age of 43 years. The cause of his death was pneumonia. Lord Colin Campbell came most prominently before the public in a suit for a judicial separation instituted by his wife in 1884, after three years of married life.

In a Leaking Condition.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 18.—The schooner William H. Schubert, Captain Sloan, bound for Pascagoula, Miss., to New York, with a cargo of lumber, has put into this port in a leaking condition with fourteen inches of water in her hold.

Silver Debate at Mobile July 1.

MOBILE, Ala., June 18.—Arrangements were completed to-day for a joint debate to take place here on the last of July between W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, and Richard A. Clark, of Alabama, the silver question being the subject.

A Ten Per Cent. Increase.

JOLIET, Ill., June 18.—The Illinois Steel Company has given official notice that on July 1 a ten per cent. increase will be made in the wages of employes of the Joliet Works, except those working on a sliding scale.

IN DANGER OF LYCHING.

The Negro Murderer of Mrs. Pollard Captured

Six Women Had Already Been Arrested for Complicity in the Crime—Marable Spends Money at Chase City Which Causes Him to be Suspected—He is Hunted in All Directions and Caught Near Five Forks.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18.—Six negro women, suspected of the Pollard murder, have been arrested. Two admit knowing something about the crime, but refuse to talk more than to admit that a man was concerned in it. This man went to Chase City, Va., yesterday, and had several $20 notes. He was seen near the Pollard house an hour before the murder was discovered. His clothes have been found near the house covered with blood. A posse of 300 men is scouring the country for him. He is from Granville county, N. C. There has not been such excitement since the war, and hundreds of men from four or five counties are on the alert.

A dispatch from Keysville, Va., says: The posse of men searching for William Solomon Marable, the negro murderer of Mrs. Pollard, ran on him this evening near Five Forks. A chase ensued, Marable running towards Five Forks. Some of the party closed in on him just as he reached the station, and at the command to throw up his hands, he dodged under a car on the siding. He was dragged from under the car without resistance, and taken to Fort Mitchell, the scene of the murder.

He implicates three women in the deed, claiming that Pokey Barnes and Mary Abnatheny committed the murder and in passing him at a spring near by handed him a twenty dollar bill and that it was this note that got him into trouble at Chase City Sunday. The hope of getting the money and bringing other guilty parties to justice through information given by him may save the negro from lynching. He will hold a preliminary trial to-morrow morning.

In face of the awful situation confronting him, Marable was seen to laugh several times in giving his statement to the attorney and in relating the conversations he claimed had passed between him and the women; he repeated the oaths he had used at the time. Three women have been sent to jail. Every effort is being made to get all the guilty parties.

A Danville dispatch says: Solomon Marable says he and a woman watched while two women did the killing and robbery. They then divided the money. Lynching is freely talked of, and the sheriff has called for men to assist in protecting the prisoners.

A special to the Danville Register from Clarksville at midnight says: "All quiet at Fort Mitchell now. Sheriff has twenty-five men guarding the prisoners. One woman to be caught yet. No fear of trouble to-night."

National League Convention. CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 18.—Every incoming train to-day brought scores of delegates and visitors to attend the National Republican League convention, which begins to-morrow morning. The business portion of the city is profusely decorated with flags and bunting. Music Hall, where the convention will be held, has been most attractively decorated.

A Brutal Fratricide.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18.—Near Mount Gilead, Montgomery county, two brothers, Andrew and Mann Rhodes, colored, quarrelled. Sarah Rhodes, their mother, seized Andrew and held him while Mann, with a knife, ripped Andrew open, killing him. Sarah and Mann are both in jail. There is talk among the negroes of lynching both mother and son.

"Diamond Charlie" Called Back.

TORONTO, June 18.—"Diamond Charlie" alias Coleman, must go back to the Southern States to stand trial on a charge of swindling a number of jewelers there. Judge McDougall signed the final order this afternoon, and Coleman, in charge of United States officers, will leave here in a day or two.
